Dear Sirs

Upon carefully examining the 1871 list received, am enclosing you herewith a few bids for some of the goods. If anything Successful you might send me invoice & I will remit by first mail & you can forward Goods.
As this is our first business I named refer you to Wm. Lyman & Son & Geoffrey & Co. Montreal. — Upon these will no doubt be satisfactory to you. — Would like to have had a chance at "Redmans" but am somewhat at a loss regarding these Brass and afraid it is too late for you to give me any advice re same. However if you could drop me a line by first mail might be able to get bid in in time.
Trusting to hear from you

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of 9th inst. I am answering your former letter written me re bids on Jan. 12th. which will show plainly that my 1893 was not taken for 1892 at that time. I do not think he would say anything like any of the 5 on the bed sheet. I do not like assuming the responsibility for the error as the error is clearly on your part. It is not a matter of 1892 but I do not care to pay for something that would not have occurred had no error been made.

Trusting this will be satisfactory to you

Yours truly
